INTRODUCTION

It has always been a pleasure to invite guests from reputed organizations to visit and witness the working of the department of the National Tobacco Quitline Services. NTQLS is a free of cost telephonic counselling service enabling people to quit the use of tobacco at a nation-wide level. The helpline was inaugurated on 30th May 2016 by (hon.) Shri J P Nadda (Ministry of health and family welfare, Govt. of India) and it is operational between 8 am to 8 pm in a week except on Monday.

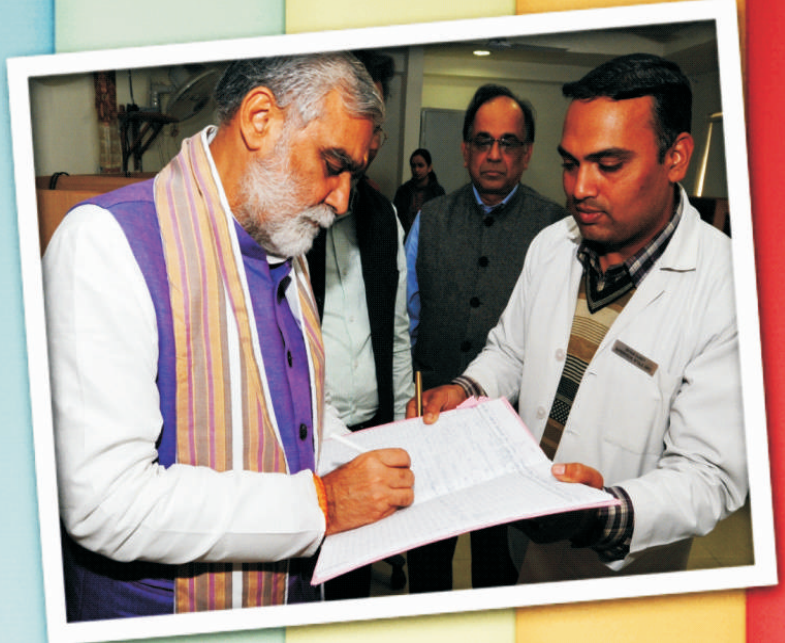

Since the use of tobacco is so prevalent in our country, it was the need of the hour to launch a platform like this that is easily accessible to the masses and is directed to abstain the use of tobacco and promote well-being of the citizens. Thus, NTQLS at Vallabhbhai Patel Chest Institute, University of Delhi, became the satellite centre for an initiative like this. It is since 2016 that we have been welcoming visitors to be a part of this journey and add their valuable feedbacks to the growth of the organization.

The major objective of this book is to highlight the fact that prominent personalities from different areas of expertise have made a visit to the organization and firmly promote the message of quitting tobacco use for a healthier tomorrow. They see this platform as an initiative towards accomplishing a larger social cause. This book tracks the journey of how this project has expanded and attracted the interest of visitors to experience the rigorous work done by the entire team of NTQLS.

The NTQLS has welcomed many dignitaries, delegates, professors, doctors, students and interns from different areas of expertise. They are satisfied while visit and get to experience the successful functioning of the telephonic based counselling, i.e. how counsellors are constantly engaged in calling, the protocols they follow, the kind of techniques they use and the growth of quit rate year by year. This book has captured these personal experiences and thoughts of our visitors that are of great importance to every worker serving at NTQLS. One such proud moment for the department was when Shri Ashwini Kumar Choubey, State Minister, Govt. of India, paid his visit to NTQLS and randomly made a call to the tobacco user to enquire whether he has benefitted from the quitline. From his conversation with the caller he was happy and satisfied by efforts of the entire NTQLS team is contributing towards the social cause.

I would like to extend the token of thanks to each visitor who took a moment to give their valued feedback and wished for the success of this platform. I also thank to all those who contributed to make this book a success.

The facility is well maintained in a professional manner. Environment is quite positive. All the counsellors are busy in working. I am sure that working continuously for 06 hrs must be quite tiring and therefore they need such environment & continuous encouragement which is certainly being provided by VPCI. I am very happy to see it and wish we may have many more centres like this.
